INDEX TO VOLUME XIV

Volume XIV of BOOKS ON TRIAL includes the issues from August-September, 1955, through June-July, 1956. Since page numbers run consecutively through all issues of Volume XIV, only the page number and not the month of issue is given after each index entry. In some cases, instead of a page number, the word "June" will appear. This indicates that the book is reviewed in this issue; the page on which the review appears can be found in the table of contents on page 389. An asterisk (*) following an entry in the index indicates that the book received an annotated listing in the "Recently Published" section rather than a review. Juvenile titles and authors are in a separate index beginning on page 455.

Off the Cuff

pleted work on a short novel about the three wise men to be published this Fall by Harcourt, Brace. The title is The Three Kings . . .The stage version of The Power and the Glory opened in London and met with varied reactions from the critics. The London Daily Mail said: "Graham Greene's study of physical decay and spiritual confusion in a seedy, churchless, police-ridden Mexican state transfers uneasily to the stage." The News Chronicle on the other hand said "It has great theatrical power." . . . And The Benn Hall Associates Newsletter reports this item from the Mankato, Minnesota, Free Press: "The Book Lovers Club of Mankato had its first fall get-together with the husbands of the members at dinner Thursday evening. Following the dinner the group went to the home of a member to watch television."

•

Obituary Notes: Ruth Cranston, non-Catholic author of The Miracle of Lourdes and winner of last February's Christopher Award, died at St. Luke's Hospital, New York, after a sudden and brief illness. . . . The Very Rev. Peter A. Resch, S.M., whose review of The Mystery of the Woman you will find in this issue, died at the age of 62 at Maryhurst, Kirkwood, Missouri. Father Resch was the author of The Prayer Life of a Religious, Shadows Cast Before and, most recently, A Life of Mary, Co-Redemptrix.

Letter from England

our time: "A society which demands unquestioning obedience from its members should be aware of certain abuses that arise within itself. This is one use of the Provincial Letters, it might be said, and there are no indications in our time that they have outlived this usefulness; indeed they have now a far wider application than ever Pascal dreamed." It is perhaps a sign of the whole approach of the Times Literary Supplement that the Provincial Letters, even though it is the tercentenary of the trial of Arnauld and the occasion of their publication, should form the subject of the front page article with no mention of the Pensees and but superficial awareness of the issues at stake.
